

Getting ready for customers in Chinatown market

CENTRAL SINGAPORE AT

What happens in Central Singapore during the course of a day? In a new series, Voices attempts to capture slices of life in the District with photographs of people going about their daily lives from morning to night. In this first part, we look at the beginning of yet another day in Central Singapore.

Picture courtesy of the PSA Corporation Limited

Ship at PSA facility

am

By Irene Wee

Qigong enthusiasts at Bishan Park show the way

Lets have a different morning everyday!
Monday.....
Tuesday.....
Wednesday.....
Thursday.....
Friday.....
Saturday.....
Sunday.....

Going to work - and some coming home, at Ang Mo Kio MRT station

All ready for business at Chinatown market

Office workers at Raffles Place and vendors offering the news

School children queue for a bus